

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Saturday-Monday, October 19-21, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson

Nickles won't challenge Lott for Senate post

Districts' use of unlicensed teachers cited

Tort reform remains unfinished business

Miss. Supreme Court adopts new rule for recusal requests

Report: Inflation under control

Editorials

Cheating?: College Board should back schools

Indian gaming: Tribe legally protected from taxes

Ambrose: State mourns famed war historian

Fair success: Attendance, quality on the rise

Common themes cropping up in 3rd District ads

AARP position could boost Shows

Roosevelt's great-grandson joins 100th anniversary fest

Schools focusing on state quarter

5 Partners in Education to be honored

Analysts: Volatility may signal markets' recovery

Editorials

Judicial races: Voters left out of the process

Iraq: United Nations perspective needed

Business, trial bar in renewed combat

Judicial election costs soaring

Joe Atkins: Newman told me about a shortcut

Bill Minor: Pickering campaign is trying to 'bamboozle seniors' on issues

Charlie Mitchell: Parties taking the easy road by not trying

Med record fees policy irks some

State's casino revenue jump surprises analysts

Musgrove right on 'Rent-a-Pens'

The Sun Herald Biloxi

Session will resume early next week

Youth Court candidates tout gains, fairness

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

State, local governments offer businesses great opportunities

Lampton doesn't fit the mold

Speakers stump at Hancock GOP fest

Mississippi to launch "Amber" system this month

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo

EDITORIAL: Leading 'the W' - Limbert has a great heritage to build upon

Legislators take weekend break - still long way from solution

MUW welcomes its 13th president

LLOYD GRAY: Different times, familiar state issues

Lee County Democrats set fall rally Monday

Special election qualifying deadline Tuesday for state senate

Judicial spotlight turns from criminal to civil issues

Campaign Donors List

EDITORIAL: A landmark school celebrates 50 years

Letters to the Editor

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, TN
States rated on protecting privacy

Hattiesburg American

Urge state lawmakers to act now

Don't vote for incumbents

Voters should 'connect dots'

Current system penalizes doctors

Meridian Star

• Nissan plans job fair in Philadelphia

• Still standing

• Illegal drugs: city's biggest crime problem

Laurel Leader-Call

Laurel School District receives Dropout Prevention Grant

DeSoto Times Today Hernando

Passage of banking bill 'significant,' Jennings says

The Clarksdale Press Register

School grants total \$2.4 million

New standardized test unfair to black students, he says

Ole Miss symbolizes change in Mississippi

Flood solutions on the horizon

Plant cited in report for releasing wastewater copper

Marks landing manufacturing plant

George Walker deserves a standing 'O'

Punitive damages could solve state's fiscal woes

Daily Times Leader West Point

Economic development vs. jackpot justice 10/20

Vicksburg Post

Calsonic Kansei opens plant that will employ 140

The Bolivar Commercial Cleveland

State makes strides in cleaning up water

The Delta Democrat Times Greenville

Enterprise Journal McComb

The Natchez Democrat

Youth justice center uses thousands in grants
Mississippi still waits for civil justice reform

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Scrimp on jail, not on schools
Judges have lost job description
School buses should be manned with chaperones

Abraham evaluating options for Uniek site
Blame lawyers for confusion on tort reform, Howell says

The Mississippi Press Pascagoula

The Picayune Item

Barbour to speak at Picayune Chamber banquet
Musgrove returns from economic development trip to Europe
Despite criticism, Mississippi county officials stand by their voting machines
Optimism reigns supreme at Capitol even though results mixed
Report: 80 percent of facilities violating Clean Water Act limits

The Daily Leader Brookhaven

The Daily Star Grenada

County to get federal dollars to help fund office building

Mississippi Business Journal

Jobless rate in state drops to lowest in a year
MBJ Editorial

Magnolia Report

Musgrove back from Europe 10/20
Bob Pittman: Buddie Newman was a friend to Mississippi 10/19
Brian Perry: A judge's right to be partisan 10/17
Brian Perry's Political Scene \(Magnolia Report #28 Summary\) 10/17

Stateline.org

The New York Times

Tailgating With Class Is a Custom at Ole Miss

The Washington Post

High Stakes in Governor's Races

Everyday Violence Still Claims Its Victims

The Washington Times

TV Stories

Mississippi to launch Amber Alert system

Nissan Supplier Opens for Business

First Nissan Supplier Opens In Warren County

EDITORIAL: A landmark school celebrates 50 years

Musgrove Returns from England, Germany

Other